

2

What is the typical Dutch way to handle a compliment about your clothes?

- A. They thank you like a normal person
- B. They proudly tell you how much they got it for in the sale
- C. They will brag about how expensive it was

B. Since the Dutch are very silly, they proudly tell you how much money they saved with their purchase.

2

How many bicycles end up in the 'grachten' (canals) every year in Amsterdam?

The person closest to the right answer, can give away two strafpunten.

15.000. Go fishing if you need a bike.

1

The person who borrows the most money from the Dutch government...

Take one strafpunkt.

Dutch students are very open about their student loans.

1

If you have never eaten a bitterbal...

Take one strafpunkt.

2

How many kilograms of cheese does an average Dutchman eat per year?

The person closest to the right answer, can give away two strafpunten.

17 Kilograms. The Netherlands produces more than 800 million kilos of cheese a year. The Dutch love their cheese!

2

How many botherhammen (slices of bread) with hagelslag do the Dutch eat every day?

The person closest to the right answer, can give away two strafpunten.

Hagelslag is the most popular topping in the Netherlands.

2

Which of these is a Dutch habit at family birthday parties?

- A. Not bringing a present
- B. Let everyone bring their own drink
- C. Congratulate everyone at the party

C. A lot of people in the Netherlands congratulate all friends and family members at a birthday party.

2

Which of these is the traditional food, served to celebrate the birth of a baby?

- A. Biscuits with little blue or pink mice
- B. A blue or pink pie
- C. Blue or pink colored vanilla ice cream

A. Biscuits with pink and white mice (beschuit met muisjes) are served when a girl is born, blue and white mice are served when a boy is born.

2

What do the Dutch do when they eat potatoes with vegetables?

- A. Eat everything with their hands
- B. Mash everything
- C. Keep everything separate

B. But we call it 'prakken', we smash our potatoes and mix it with the rest of the food.

3

True or false?
The Dutch are very punctual.

The Dutch plan everything. If you want to meet with a Dutch person, they grab their agenda to see if they have a free spot somewhere in June or next year.

2

What is something you should never do to a Dutch person?

- A. Show up at their front door unannounced
- B. Show up early
- C. Plan a get together 3 years in advance

A. NEVER EVER DARE TO VISIT UNANNOUNCED!!

Dutch people plan a lot.

Take as many strafpunten as appointments this week.

4

If you came here on a bike...
Divide four strafpunten.

1

Everyone who has ever been to a coffeeshop...

Take one strafpunkt.

2

Take turns naming things people from a different culture serve on birthdays.

The first one to fail takes one strafpunkt.

1

If you have not made lunch at home today...
Take one strafpunkt.

Making your lunch at home saves you five euros.

3

If you complain about the cold in the winter and the warmth in the summer...

Take three strafpunten.

1

If you eat your bread with butter...
Take one strafpunkt.

Almost 80% of Dutchie's eat their bread with butter, they use butter for literally anything..

