

What does it mean when the cashier says “spaart u zegels?”

“Do you collect coupons?” Dutch people always take this because it is free.

Which of the following abbreviations means: ‘guaranteed’?

- A. Idd
- B. Kvk
- C. Sws

C. SWS is short for sowieso

What does the Dutch verb ‘swaffelen’ mean?

- A. Rubbing one’s penis against something
- B. Eating something in one bite
- C. Wearing your underwear for the whole week

A. We know it sounds weird, so don’t try this at home (:)

What does the Dutch slang ‘osso’ stand for?

- A. Home
- B. School
- C. Supermarket

“Waka osso, ik moet dagga” (Let’s go home, I have to sleep)
A. Home

Which one of these is a curse word?

- A. Schoonmoeder
- B. Klootzak
- C. Grasmaaier

B. “Vulie Klootzak!”
“Dirty bastards!”

What is the second official language in the Netherlands?

Fries. Friesland is a province in the Netherlands where they speak Fryslan. If you ever meet a Frisian person.. RUN! :)

What is the correct Dutch word for ‘fries’?

- A. Patat
- B. Friet

get this straight: You can decide which answer is right.
There is no right answer to this, so for once and for all let's

What does NS stand for?

HINT: it is never on time

Dutch Railways
Nederlandse Spoorwegen

Holland is synonymous with the Netherlands.

NOOO!! The Netherlands is the name of our country.
South and North-Holland are provinces.

What happens if a Dutchman starts with ‘afdingen’ at the market?

The Dutch want to pay as little as possible, that is why we haggle. Which is also the answer to the question.

What is a ‘tactisch barfje’?

This means, tactical under. Students do this before going to bed, to prevent a hangover the next morning. Or to be able to drink even more.

“Alsjeblieft” means “please” it also means..

- A. ‘There you go’
- B. ‘Excuse me?’
- C. ‘I am sorry’

A. There you go!

What is the nickname of a birthday boy?
Jarige...

- A. Job
- B. Top
- C. Bob

because it sounds good.
A. The Dutch call a birthday boy a jarige Job,

What is the nickname of a birthday girl?
Jarige...

- A. Slet
- B. Jet
- C. Tet

because it sounds good.
B. The Dutch call a birthday girl a jarige Jet,

What does it mean when you are the BOB at a party?

It's an abbreviation for someone who doesn't drink and drive.

What does a BVO mean?

Beer for on the road.
Bierje voor onderweg.

Name one out of four countries that are part of the kingdom of the Netherlands.

Curacao, Aruba, Sint-Maarten, and of course the Netherlands (:).
Two strapuntien. Good answers were:

Forbidden word!
Think of a word that defines your culture and try to explain it without saying the word.

